Professional overview

Samantha is an experienced junior barrister. She appears unled, and led, in a variety of courts and in tribunals, arbitrations, mediations, regulatory examinations, and public inquiries.

Naturally in WA, Samantha has sector expertise in mining and energy and resources disputes. Samantha has particular expertise in arbitration (domestic and international), corporations law, contract, consumer law, mining law, corporate crime and investigations, anti-bribery and corruption, class actions and access regulation.

Samantha is a member of the panel of individuals that can act as arbitrators in the event of a dispute under the Railways (Access) Code 2000.

Before being called to the bar, Samantha was a Senior Associate in the Disputes team at Herbert Smith Freehills. She joined Freehills (as it then was) in 2007 and practised in both Perth and Sydney.
